London, December 16.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersbourg, November 28.

ON the 16th, their Imperial Majesties assisted at Divine Service in the Church of the Holy Trinity, where his Czarian Majesty stood Godfather to the Son of one of the Princes of the Calmucks, his Majesty's Vassal, who has embraced the Christian Religion as practised by the Greeks; fifteen of this Prince's Domesticks, who has been named Peter, will shortly follow his Example. On the 20th a scandalous Libel was burnt publicly by the Common Hangman, and the Chancery issued at the same Time a Proclamation, wherein a considerable Reward is promised for the Discovery of the Author. Some Days ago the Chamberlain Moens was arrested, as likewise his Sister, married to General Balks, and M. Stalebow his Secretary: The said Chamberlain having been condemned to be beheaded for high Misdemeanours, the Sentence was executed Yesterday in Presence of his Sister and Secretary, who received afterwards some Stripes or Knouts, for having been accessory to his Crime; the Secretary has also been condemned to the Gallies for Ten Years. An Ordinance has been posted up, enjoying everybody to declare what Petitions they have put into the Hands of the same Chamberlain, and what Bribes he has taken from them to favour them in their Solicitations.

Warsaw, Dec. 6. On Saturday last the Swedish Minister received an Express from his Court, with a Letter of Intercession to the King in Favour of the City of Thorn, the Magistrates whereof have made their Application to all the Protestant Courts for their interposing in Behalf of that unfortunate City; but the Departure of the Commissioners, and the Arrival of the Troops before that Town, give just Ground to fear, that in order to prevent the Effect of so many Intercessions, the Time for the Execution, which was fixed to the 15th, will be shortened.

Thorn, Dec. 7. In vain did we flatter ourselves to obtain a Mitigation of the Decree issued against this unhappy City, since they would not so much as stay till the Time appointed, but have put it in Execution this very Day with the utmost Rigour, with the Assistance of the Troops, who had surrounded our Walls. The President Rohner, and not Resner, was beheaded at Four this Morning in the Square of the Old Town-House; five of the sixteen Burghers condemned to Death, have been likewise executed in the public Place, their Right Hands having been first cut off; several others who were concerned in that Affair, were first beheaded, afterwards quartered, and then burnt without the City. The Consternation of all the Inhabitants is not to be described, the rather, since they are not allowed to express their Grief but by silent Tears.

Madrid, Dec. 4. On the 17th past the Chevalier de Conflans arrived here from Paris, being sent on the part of the Duke of Orleans to solicit their Catholic Majesties to be pleased to consent to the Return of the Queen, King Lewis's Widow, to France, where it is resolved her Majesty shall live in some Royal Palace distant from Paris, upon her Dowry, as Queen Dowager of Spain; and 'tis not doubted their Catholic Majesties will grant their Consent. Letters from Malaga advise, that the Brandon a Spanish Man of War which sailed with the Oneto from Cadiz, and was supposed to be lost, had put into the Port of Malaga, but was in a very shattered Condition, being entirely unfit to proceed on her intended Voyage to the West-Indies to cruize against the Pyrates in those Parts. The same Letters add, that there lately happened a great Storm upon that Coast, that several Villages thereabout had been overflowed by sudden Torrents, and a great many People drowned. Last Night this Court received an Account from the West-Indies, by the Way of Cadiz, of Admiral Gueyarras having been cast away upon the Island of Santo Domingo, himself drowned, and only 80 Men saved of the Ship, he was in: He sailed from Cadiz the Beginning of last Summer, with two Men of War of 50 Guns, laden with Quicksilver for Vera Cruz.

Turin, Dec. 13. On the 22d of last Month the Princess de la Cisterna, first Lady of Honour to the Queen, received Orders to declare, that whereas heretofore no Ladies were admitted to Court but such as had been Maids of Honour to her Majesty, or to Madame Royale, now upon the Princess of Piedmont's coming to Turin, her Majesty was pleased to permit all Ladies of Quality to appear at the Circle, and enjoy other Privileges as Ladies belonging to the Court. Upon this Notice, great Diligence was used by the Ladies to provide themselves with rich Clothes against the Court's coming. On the 25th the Court came hither from the Veneria, on which Occasion the Cannon on the Ramparts of the Town and Citadel were thrice discharged, the Garrison was under Arms, and at Night the whole City illuminated. That Evening the Ladies attended at the Palace, and had the Honour for the first time of kissing the Princess of Piedmont's Hand. The Passages of Mount Cenis have been so obstructed with Snows for some Days past, that the Couriers could not perform their Journeys without great Difficulty. The King and Prince hunted the Stag on the 11th Instant.
